Warehouse Manager

Description

WPS | Washington Professional Systems is actively seeking a Warehouse Manager to oversee our warehouse operations in our Mt. Laurel, New Jersey facility. As a WPS warehouse manager, you will complete various organization and planning tasks to maintain high performance of warehouse's storage, receiving, and shipment processes. Success in this role will include the ability to successfully optimize efficient layouts, workflows, and the utilization of warehouse space.

Success in this role will necessitate a candidate who is able to take initiative and effectively complete tasks without substantial oversight. A successful candidate will also demonstrate the ability to work independently, prioritize effectively and accomplish tasks quickly and accurately. Although this role will report to our Director of Operations, a proactive and ambitious approach to all daily business activities is required for success in this role.
