WE SPEAK AV

We are musicians, broadcasters, engineers, and industry veterans. We're passionate about helping customers and finding solutions to challenging problems. We have established relationships with the most innovative manufacturers and have worked directly with their engineers to develop customized solutions for over 35 years.

TRUSTED BY THE BEST

Our objective is to maximize value for our clients while maintaining the highest level of quality. Our reputation for expertise in the industry has made WPS one of the most trusted technology integrators and dealers in the marketplace and has allowed us to work with some of the most recognized organizations in the world.
